Q24A. You see their billboards everywhere—so-called “ambulance chasers” promising to fight for you. But the truth is, many take 30–40% of the award in fees and often hide extra charges that drain even more from their clients. Some go further—outright stealing from their clients, like the Florida attorney disbarred after pocketing nearly $90,000 in client funds. Americans deserve a legal system that puts victims first, not greedy lawyers.
